

Flying in the current aircraft seat configurations is uncomfortable enough without having to have to listen to someone talking on their cellular phone, possibly throughout the flight and probably in an uncomfortably loud voice. PLEASE do not make the flight experience any worse than it is now -- late departures and arrivals, uncomfortable seating, over-zealous security inspections, etc. P L E A S E !